Ada Locke focuses on intellectual property litigation and counseling.

Her experience includes working on multiple high-profile patent litigation matters, including taking a lead role in developing infringement positions; drafting and finalizing discovery-related motions; coordinating and leading expert witness preparation and strategy sessions; and conducting legal and technical research in support of motion practice, trial themes, and expert preparation.

Ada also has experience with trade secret matters, including supporting a JAMS arbitration from inception through all stages of discovery while at her prior firm.

Before joining Coblentz, Ada was an associate at Desmarais LLP in San Francisco. She previously served as a summer legal intern in the Office of General Counsel for the D.C. Department of Health.

Ada earned her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center in 2023, where she was a Georgetown Law Fellow and a staff editor for the Georgetown Law Technology Review. She received her B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley in 2018.
