Amber Leong advises on a variety of litigation matters. Her experience includes complex and various aspects of business litigation in all stages of litigation, including pre-trial motions, jury trials, post-verdict motion practice, and California state court appellate matters.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Amber clerked for the Honorable J. Michael Seabright and the Honorable Helen Gillmor in the U.S. District Court for the District of Hawaii. She also clerked for the Honorable Claudia Wilken in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. Before that, Amber was an associate at Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP, where she was a part of a trial team that secured four favorable jury verdicts for a Fortune 500 Company. She also secured verdicts in appellate matters in the California Court of Appeal.

Amber is National Mentoring Co-Chair for the American Bar Association's Judicial Internship Opportunity Program.

Amber earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law. During law school, she served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Edward M. Chen in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, and was the Executive Managing Editor of the Hastings Law Journal. Amber earned her B.A., cum laude, from the University of California, San Diego.
