As Librarian, Andrea Rubin is responsible for all areas of library operations and activities for Coblentz. This includes performing legal and general research, locating books and online resources for research projects, and maintaining news and litigation alerts. Andrea manages the library collection and works with attorneys and administrative staff to ensure the firm's online and print resources are ones that best support the firm's group and individual practices. She coordinates training for attorneys and staff in order to facilitate cost-effective and efficient research, and acts as the firm's liaison with online database vendors and book publishers. Andrea has worked in law libraries for over 15 years.

Education

Andrea completed an M.A. in English Literature at San Francisco State University, an M.L.I.S. at San Jose State University, and a B.A in Russian Language and Literature at Middlebury College.

Professional Activities

Andrea is a member of the Northern California Association of Law Librarians, the American Association of Law Libraries, and the Special Libraries Association.
