Frank Busch is an experienced litigator who has represented parties of every size in complex trial and appellate matters. Frank has experience with all phases of discovery, motion practice, mediation, arbitration, trial, and appeal, including leading successful trial teams and winning oral argument before the Ninth Circuit. A creative and strategic problem-solver who is passionate about technology and informed by his Computer Science degree, Frank understands his clients, their business models, and their products and services. He also understands his clients' need to protect their confidential information in a world where companies rely on that confidentiality to protect their critical intellectual property. Frank represents companies, along with state and local governments, in a broad range of disputes including software, contracts, unfair competition, and trade secret issues in both California state court and federal courts across the country.

Frank also has deep experience in probate litigation, having represented both beneficiaries and fiduciaries in many litigated matters, including will contests, trust contests, accounting actions, attorney-in-fact litigation, and other related matters. In probate litigation, Frank leverages his significant civil litigation experience to ensure that his clients receive the strong and effective representation their dispute requires. Frank served as lead trial counsel in large probate disputes that led to multi-week trials in both 2021 and 2023.

Frank also has an insider's view of government law enforcement practices, having contributed to an investigation by the Northern District of California United States Attorney's Office and the Department of Justice's Mortgage Backed Securities Working Group that achieved a $2.6 billion settlement agreement with Morgan Stanley. This amount was at the time the largest sum ever recovered in a civil case investigated by the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of California.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Frank was a founding partner of Wagstaffe, von Loewenfeldt, Busch & Radwick LLP.

Frank is a member of the Bar Association of San Francisco, where he serves as a Co-Chair of the Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Litigation Subsection. Prior to that appointment in 2024, Frank served as Chair and as a member of the Litigation Section Executive Committee in 2023. As Chair, he met monthly with the leadership of the San Francisco Superior Court. He served as Vice Chair in 2022 and Secretary in 2021.

Frank's civil procedure experience is further reflected by his role as a lead author of the California Pretrial Civil Procedure Practice Guide and contributing author to the Federal Civil Procedure Before Trial practice guide published by Matthew Bender, a platform designed to provide efficient and accurate guidance to practitioners in any federal district, or California superior, court. It is one of the key practice guides available on the LexisNexis research platform. Frank's clients benefit from his up-to-the-minute knowledge of key civil procedure issues resulting from his work on this resource.

Frank is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the Supreme Court of California and California State Courts, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the United States Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit, the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, the U.S.

Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California, and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California.

Frank earned his J.D. from the University of Chicago Law School in 2008. He received his B.A. in Computer Science (with distinction) and History from Yale University in 2005.
