Franklin Krbechek focuses on commercial litigation matters. He works with a range of clients including high-net-worth individuals and publicly traded corporations. His experience also includes bankruptcy, probate, and intellectual property disputes. He has participated in multiple trials, including as a second-chair, which have resulted in multi-million dollar savings to defendants.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Franklin was an associate with Brown Rudnick LLP and Greenberg Gross LLP. He served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Scott C. Clarkson, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California.

Franklin earned his J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of California, Irvine School of Law in 2018. He received his B.A. from the University of California, Berkeley in 2014.
