Hunter Moss focuses on general corporate matters. His experience includes representing private equity and venture capital firms in connection with client fund formation, fund raises, and compliance with securities regulations. He has also represented private and public companies in all stages of their lifecycles, from formation to acquisition. Hunter has worked with clients from a wide array of industries including fintech, life sciences & healthcare, digital media, and emerging technologies. Hunter's representation of clients from across the emerging company ecosystem – from start-ups to investors to fund sponsors – gives him a holistic perspective when serving his clients.

Before joining Coblentz, Hunter was an associate with Debevoise & Plimpton and Morrison & Foerster. Prior to attending law school, Hunter worked for several startups and SaaS companies in the digital marketing field with an emphasis on content marketing, SEO, and social media marketing.

Hunter served as an extern for the Honorable Mary E. Wiss in the Superior Court of California, Complex Litigation Division.

Hunter earned his J.D. cum laude from the University of Minnesota Law School in 2020, where he was the executive editor of the Minnesota Journal of Law, Science and Technology. He received his B.A. from McGill University in 2011.
