Izi Silverstein represents clients in litigation matters.

Before joining Coblentz, Izi clerked for the Honorable Jinsook Ohta of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California, where they researched and drafted written orders on a variety of dispositive motions and subjects, including National Labor Relations Act preemption, consumer class actions, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 civil rights claims, and mandatory arbitration. Prior to that, Izi was an associate at O'Melveny & Myers in San Francisco, where they focused on complex healthcare fraud defense and litigation. During their time at O'Melveny, Izi maintained an active pro bono practice, representing clients in reproductive rights, voting rights, and death penalty cases.

Izi earned their J.D., cum laude, from New York University School of Law in 2023, where they were a Dean's Scholar and senior articles editor for the Review of Law & Social Change. While in law school, Izi externed for the Healthcare Bureau of the Office of the New York State Attorney General and interned for Commissioner Caroline Crenshaw of the United States Securities & Exchange Commission. They earned their B.A. in Psychology and B.A. in Dance, magna cum laude, from Bryn Mawr College in 2018.
