Linda Huynh advises clients on trust and estate administration matters. Prior to becoming an attorney, she worked in the biotech industry. After becoming licensed to practice law, trust and probate administration quickly became her focus. She has extensive experience assisting trustees and personal representatives navigate through the complexities and challenges of administration. She also assists with federal estate and gift tax returns.

Linda also has provided services to clients within the areas of estate planning, conservatorships and guardianships, and immigration.

Linda earned her J.D. from Golden Gate University School of Law in 2006. She earned her B.S. from the University of California, Davis in 2001. She is also registered to practice as an attorney before the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
