May Hanecak is the Facilities Director for Coblentz, bringing more than 12 years of facilities management experience to her role. May leads the Facilities Department to ensure that operational functions and physical offices are optimized to support and promote client services and the practice of law within the Firm. May is responsible for supporting the development and execution of the Firm's Business Continuity Plan and acts as the lead manager for responding to building-related emergencies. May also participates in initiatives related to law firm sustainability and the promotion of environmental sustainability within the Firm.

Before working in facilities, May was an Emmy-award winning producer for the NBC affiliate station in San Francisco, where she worked on a variety of local programming including a documentary series, a news magazine show, a technology show, and a travel show.

May is a member of the International Facility Management Association and the Association of Legal Administrators.
