Michelle Claros focuses on trust and estate matters for individuals, families, and institutions.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Michell was an associate at Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, where she advised high net worth individuals and their families with the preparation and administration of estate plans, business succession planning, tax planning, and philanthropy. Michelle draws on her previous experience in communications and nonprofit fundraising at Community Legal Services in East Palo Alto, the Terner Center for Housing Innovation at UC Berkeley, and the International Rescue Committee to provide her clients a multifaceted perspective on their charitable endeavors.

Michelle earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of California College of the Law, San Francisco (Hastings) in 2023 with a concentration in Tax Law. During law school, she served as an extern to Special Trial Judge Eunkyong Choi in the United States Tax Court in Washington, DC. Michelle received her B.A. from Wellesley College in 2015.
