
Rachel Rose Suhr

Associate
San Francisco

Details

T 415.293.6479

F 415.989.1663

rsuhr@coblentzlaw.com

Rachel Suhr represents clients in complex commercial litigation, white collar, securities, and pro bono matters.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Rachel was an associate with Latham & Watkins. She also served as a law clerk to Chief Judge Sidney R. Thomas of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit.

Rachel is a member of the Okizu Young Professionals Council.

Rachel earned her J.D. from Stanford Law School in 2018 and graduated with High Pro Bono Distinction. She earned her B.A., summa cum laude, in History and American Literature & Culture from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2014.

Notable Representations

Rachel was part of a team that:

- Won dismissal of a putative class action complaint challenging a prominent technology company's warranty practices under the federal Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act and California's Unfair Competition Law and Consumers Legal Remedies Act
- Secured Ninth Circuit order affirming dismissal of securities fraud class action against a mobile game platform
- Achieved dismissal of a multi-billion-dollar privacy class action regarding alleged collection of data without user consent against a major Korean technology company and its subsidiary on personal jurisdiction grounds
- Secured government dismissal of an indictment charging a physician with conspiracy to commit and substantive counts of healthcare fraud
- Defended a fraud detection software provider against a novel putative class action under the California Information of Privacy Act analogizing the client's software to lie detectors
- Obtained dismissal of complaint alleging that a software update rendered plaintiffs' electronic devices inoperable, in violation of federal and state computer trespassing laws
- Successfully petitioned California state court for special immigrant juvenile findings on behalf of an unaccompanied minor from El Salvador
- Won asylum for pro bono client from El Salvador
- Secured domestic violence restraining order for pro bono client
- Negotiated the elimination of a pro bono client's bail bond debt under California and federal consumer protection laws

Education

J.D., Stanford Law School (2018)

B.A., summa cum laude University of California, Los Angeles (2014)