Taylor Berry focuses on real estate matters.

Prior to joining Coblentz, Taylor was a law clerk with Clark Hill Law, where she conducted legal research analyzing a broad range of residential and commercial property-related issues. She was a legal graduate intern with First American Title, where she prepared and analyzed relevant pro formas relating to title insurance for commercial real estate, assisted in creating title policies and gathering relevant information regarding potential risks, and collaborated with the underwriting team in policy risk analysis and research on properties for viability of title. Taylor's experience also includes serving as a judicial extern to the Office of the Honorable Judge Charles E. Wilson II in the Superior Court of California, County of Santa Clara.

Taylor earned her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 2023. During law school, she served as the Vice President of the Black Law Student Association, participated in the Saul Lefkowitz Moot Court Competition, and was a recipient of the McFetridge Award for Excellence from the Intensive Advocacy Program. She earned her B.A. in political science from Santa Clara University in 2018. While an undergraduate student, Taylor was a four year Division I NCAA student-athlete as a member of the Women's Basketball team, was a Hackworth Fellow for the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics, and volunteered with various community outreach organizations.
